

Lisa and Kris's Wedding

Lisa and Kris are getting married in Cabo San Lucas at the beautiful all-inclusive Riu Palace Los Cabos on Saturday October 9, 2010. We are setting up a registry for both their “Wedding-Moon” and their Honeymoon. If you would like to help them make their wedding and honeymoon even more special here are a few suggestions.

Cabo San Lucas

Even though the Riu Palace is an all-inclusive resort the wedding couple might enjoy a post-wedding romantic dinner away from the resort just for the 2 of them. Prices start at $100 or $20 increments.

How about a pre-wedding massage or some other spa treatment? The Riu Palace has fantastic spa options. This could be for her, for him or for both of them. What a great way to ease that pre-wedding tension. Prices start at $50 per person or $25 increments.

Perhaps the lucky couple would like a little more activity before the wedding. There are almost an endless supply of tours and activities available to get the adrenaline flowing such as ziplining, ATV exploring, snorkeling and even a romantic boat ride out to Lover's Beach. Prices start at $50 per person or $25 increments.

Lisa and Kris will always remember their beautiful ocean view wedding Jr. suite. If you'd like to make this stay even extra special, consider a room upgrade to an oceanfront Jr. suite or even a full suite. Prices start at $200 or $50 increments.

Honeymoon – to be determined

Lisa and Kris have not yet decided on their honeymoon destination but wherever it is there will be numerous opportunities for you to make the event even more extra special. If they choose Hawaii you might consider a Luau dinner show or a volcano tour.

If they prefer Europe there are city and museum tours as well as day trips to local sights.

Perhaps they'd like a cruise. There are always wine packages available, romantic balcony dinners or breakfasts, shore excursions, even a cabin upgrade to a jr. or full suite complete with butler. Prices start at $100 or $50 or $25 increments. We will keep you updated on their final choice.
